University of Helsinki

THE CONFERENCE

The 2016 International Conference on Nuclear and Radiochemistry is a member in a series of conferences organized since 1984, the first one having been in Lindau, Germany. The ninth conference – NRC9 – will be organized in Helsinki, the capital of Finland. The conference is organized by the Laboratory of Radiochemistry, University of Helsinki, on behalf of the Nuclear and Radiochemistry Division of EuCheMS.

The conference will cover all topics of nuclear and radiochemistry, including

- chemistry of the nuclear fuel cycle
- radiopharmaceutical chemistry
- actinide and transactinide chemistry
- environmental radioactivity – radioecology
- radiation chemistry
- nuclear analytical methods
- separation and speciation of radionuclides
- production and use of radionuclides
- education of nuclear and radiochemistry

Please visit the conference website nrc9.it.helsinki.fi for further information.

HELSINKI – THE PEARL OF THE BALTIC SEA

The NRC9 conference will be held at the Marina Congress Center in the very heart of Helsinki, known as the pearl of the Baltic Sea. The Marina center is located on the waterfront facing the beautiful central harbor, where large ferries leave for Stockholm, Tallin and St.Petersburg. The old market square, the Presidential Palace and the Helsinki Cathedral, just to mention only a few of the nearby attractions that are only a few minutes' walk from the center.
